FOR THE GRADUATE

Commencement Day stands out commencement Day stands out as one of the big occasions in life. It celebrates the first achievement to receive public recognition. It is a proud day for graduate, parents, friends. It is very natural that an occasion of such importance be celebrated with fitting gifts of permanent value. The custom of making gifts to graduates is a pretty one.

Perhaps we can help you select a suitable gift. We have chosen our stock with that idea in mind.

reports that they have written to the following bands to find out if the have any engagements for the Fourth Westerly, Danielson, Williams Plainfield and Stonington, and Monday should hear from them all. Invitations have been sent to the city and borough officials of all the surrounding towns, also to the frater nal societies. The publicity committee report the they will begin the first of the wee to advertise in outside newspapers and Monday the posters will be dis tributed, and also that arrangement have been made to have posters on the trolley cars for five days previous the Fourth. The committee desires that all who contemplate turning out on the Fourt drop a line to the chairman of the gen eral committee, Royal G. Holmes. Ou mayor and committees hope to hea that all organizations and all loya citizens will take immediate steps b special meeting or otherwise to pa icipate with the view that no able from the sidewalk, but all in sympat with American ideals will join the lini and do their part to make it a great success, for on the Fourth of July this year our soldiers will be fighting of the battle front in France to preserve liberty for us and the world, and we should celebrate the day in a manne appropriate to what it represents. The next meeting of the committee will be held at the Chamber of Com-merce rooms Monday evening at 3 o'clock and a full attendance is requested

LEGHORNS KEEP THEIR LEAD LAYING EGGS

In the thirty-third week of the lay ing contest at Storrs the Leghorns continued to out-lay their competitors among the heavy breeds. Fifty-five pens made a yield of 39 per cent. while the 45 pens of Leghorns and is as essential in modern houses as Andalusians laid at a rate of nearly electricity is to lighting. We guarantee for the week. The total production for all pens amounted to thus bringing the entire number of eggs laid to date over the hundred thousand mark.
